Commander's Corner

How-dee all,

Kind of an uneventful month we had with only one thing breaking; the electronics in the back door. This was caused by leaving the dead bolt out and letting the door slam shut jarring the crap out of the intricate parts inside. The bill was $360.00. I invented a solution to prevent this problem from happening again....read the sign!

Last month I wrote about our new sign on the front awning....it still isn't here and neither is the refund check so here's a tip for the 12 of you who read this:

DO NOT DO BUSINESS WITH "EBUYSIGNS.COM". THEY ARE FREAKIN LIARS.

Robby, his brother Todd and his boss man, Jay are putting new stucco on the side of the building. They are doing a great job and the best part is, it's free. Thanx a lot guys for a job well done.

June 14th is flag day and we will have a very brief flag disposal ceremony at 1:00 pm.

John and I will be at State Convention on June 9th to pick up our cards and vote. I also have to escort our new to District Commander up to the podium to be sworn in. Our own Bill Hauser is the new District 13 Commander. He is the 3rd one from our Post. Congrats Bill!

The Calusa Harbor Vets will be here June 10th at 1:00 pm along with Bobby Hubcat. They wanted dogs and burgers this time so that's what they'll get. If you haven't been here when these Vets are here, shame on you. It's a very worthwhile event. Drop by and say "Thank You".

We have a famous chef among us. Little did we know that Johnny Connor had such talent. Seems as though he won the Spam cook off sponsored by the Beach VFW with his version of mac & cheese & spam.....It must'a been a treat.

Don't forget Father's Day June 17th. I don't know what the Ladies have planned for us yet but I'm sure it'll be great. I hinted at lobster and fillets but that didn't get too far.

That's all I can fish out of my infertile mind for now so I will leave you with the monthly point to ponder: Your big toe is a device used to find furniture in the dark!

Yours in service,
Dave Doty
